Let's Start!

Here's a family. Let's talk about family members!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- Who is in your family?
- Share pictures of your family.

Can Do Statements

- I can introduce family members.
- I can express possession using his, her.
- I can say how old someone is.

Let's Explore!

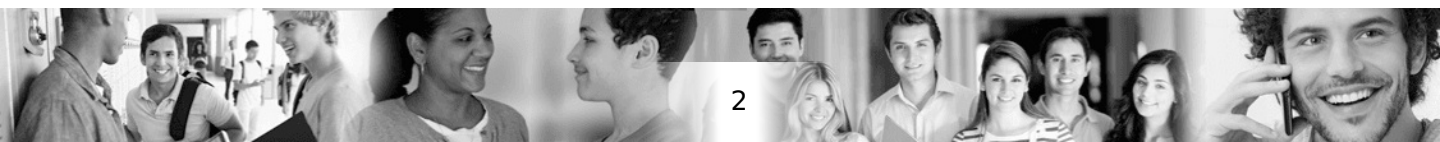

Here's* a picture of Adam's family. What does he say about them?

* "Here's" is the short form of here is. It introduces something. E.g. Here's a book.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Hi, I'm Adam. This is a picture of my family. This is my mother, Sandra, and this is my father, Daniel. They are still sweethearts. Skippy is their dog—can you see him? He is cute. This is my brother. His name is Thomas. He's 18 years old. He plays soccer. This is my little sister, Tania. She's ten. Her birthday is this month. This is me. I am the middle child. I am 16 years old. My grandparents are here. They are very nice.
